

Wedding Bouquet

*Once long ago the Lord of Heaven
Chose two snow white doves,
And sent them on a special journey
To carry the promise of love.*

*He sent them to find two loving hearts
A husband and his wife,
Just beginning their magical journey
On the wonderful road of life.*

*Flying above the celebration
Showing all below the purity of love
Touching every heart with hope and joy,
They carried the message from above.*

*Today two white doves fly free as husband and wife
To begin the journey of their married life.
A flock of snow white wings joins the two above
As all their friends bestow well wishes and love.*

*This is our Wedding Bouquet
Of White Wings on our Wedding Day!*
